Hannah, if you have any questions please call. Of course Bootlegger is the father and no, Thistles hips are documented from the second of two major injuries. You need to not be stressing about this..... no matter who is saying what! Remember, your girl is the THIRD LITTER of Bootlegger and Thistle! Possum is her older full sister! Call when you have the time.

Your pictures are public. and because of that no one need permission. They were sent to me by no less than 16 different people, clients and people getting puppies from future litter that captured them from the internet. Seems that your dog is doing very well. She must be because you're certain hate running her like crazy! I'll be anxious to see how she does with her OFA clearances at 24 months. meanwhile it seems that you "love this dog" !! Have a great holiday

Don't you worry I'll be changing my privacy settings. Do not post my Photos without permission. I would never recommend you as a breeder

And Hannah, if I had known who you really were, you would've never been able to purchase one of our puppies..... just that simple simple. I would never recommend you as a client as well. We now screen clients much more carefully.

However since you have one of our

I would never recommend you as a client as well. We now screen clients much more carefully. However, since you have one of our girls, and for the most part we are done registering this litter through AKC, everyone's contract with ALL guarantees will be sent certified on December 3rd and if we receive a signed contract copy back to us by 12/31/2018 then we will of course guarantee her, as the contract states, regardless of your verbal bashing; which is, so you know, completely contradictory to everything you post about your girl.....how wonderful she is and how much you love her!..... and for at least a loving home, we are pleased.

Suzie Piel left for two weekend shoes and the Royal Canin Show last Wednesday with Bootlegger and forgot to send the package of letters she was to mail. They were still in the office. She's not due back until 12/22 from the dog shows so I sent them out today. Here is your tracking. Two copies, self addressed stamped envelope enclosed.

This contract is completely different than the original I have. If the original had stated what this contract does regarding Thistle's OFAs I would not have signed it and bought Willa. I'll send you my
